Ski amadé – made my day

The experience days with the real “Wow” moments are being extended

A day's skiing to dream of. One special moment after another. Nice people, cool experiences. That's what “Ski amadé – made my day” is offering. Here many exclusive experiences are made possible – on just one day. This winter, for the first time, with special “Ski amadé – made my day” packages for Ladies Week.

The ultimate day's skiing – unforgettable holiday moments

Sun and snow – skiers do not actually require much to make a day perfect. And yet an upgrade is of course always possible. And this is what Austria's biggest ski association, Ski amadé, is offering with its pre-bookable “made my day” experience packages – small groups with a maximum of 12 participants brought together to enjoy Ski-amadé highlights. The idea: To have as many exciting experiences in one day's skiing as others don't even have in a whole week. Always included: professional ski-guiding. Depending on the region and deal, various other experiences are provided, like ski yoga, breakfast in the cable car or a gourmet safari. The fact that a guide leads the party makes the day's skiing very different from normal. With an expert guide, interesting companions and cool experiences the day's skiing really does become a one-off. “Ski amadé – made my day” is ideal for those hungry for new experiences and of course is also a really special present to accompany your skiing holiday.

New: Ski amadé – made my day for Ladies Week

Five very special “Ski amadé – made my day” packages are offered for the first time this season for Ladies Week (23-30.3.2019). In every Ski amadé Region that week there is a special “Ladies Week – made my day” with, for example, a herb workshop, yoga or a champagne tasting. All five “Ski amadé Ladies Week – made my day” packages have female guides. But men can of course take part. It is an ideal opportunity to check out the motto “Experience the unique variety in Ski amadé”, and pay a one-off visit to other regions, for in the end every package in the Ladies Week is different. In the Schladming-Dachstein Region, for example, a “Ladies Week – made my day” day looks like this: Champagne breakfast on the Reiteralp, ski yoga on the Hochwurzen and lunch in the Schafalm auf der Planai. In the magnificent wellness area of the 4 star Natur- and Wellnesshotel Höflehner right by the piste the “Lady” can then end her day in total relaxation. On the Hochkönig there is a gourmet herb tour on skis, culminating in a herb workshop, in which all participants create their own herb product.

Ladies First – is the motto during Ladies Week. When booking a week's package in a double room, anyone travelling in a pair will receive a 6-day ski pass from the accommodation establishment with its compliments. In addition there are numerous events, special ski tests, ski guiding, concerts and parties.
