Ski amadé experience

Ski amadé

Family offers, snow park events and WOW moments

Ski amadé comprises the Salzburger Sportwelt, Schladming-Dachstein, Gastein, Hochkönig and the Großarlal. Austria's greatest ski paradise is the ideal playground for outdoor activities across 760 kilometres of slopes. Skiers and snowboarders can enjoy plenty of room on the wide slopes, meet the community and generally have a ball here.

FAMILY Ski amadé

Ski amadé is the ideal destination for family time, with varied fun on the slopes guaranteed for young and old. In addition to 10 snow parks, 13 fun slopes and fun cross trails, kids' parks and themed and timed runs, families can crank up the speed on a toboggan or simply enjoy some downtime together at one of the spas. With its various initiatives, Austria's greatest ski paradise ensures that the family holiday does not have to blow the budget. Take, for example, the January Mini's Week, in which children under six years receive a ski course, ski hire and children's ski pass for just €125. They can usually stay in their parents' room free of charge too. Or the excellent value Family Bonus, Junior Weekend Discount, season ticket reductions for children and teens and the Easter Family Special that ends the season. Certified family accommodations complete the Ski amadé experience for children and parents alike. www.skiamade.com/family

RIDE Ski amadé

RIDE Ski amadé means far more than checking out the snow parks, fun slopes and fun cross trails. It's a feeling; of getting to know the community and discovering that the real fun begins when you „kick“, „slide“ and „bonk“ in the snow park together. Ski amadé's ten snow parks guarantee the kids' perfect day from January to March. But this area is not just reserved for teens. Families, amateurs and pros are all catered for here and will enjoy one or the other adrenaline rush. Freeriders, who thrive on deep snow, can look forward to numerous marked routes and more than 15 professional freeride-, freeski- and snowboard schools as well as guides. There is a new offer for the 2020/2021 season, which will enable freeriders to hire a safety kit that includes an avalanche transceiver, shovel, probe and freeride backpack (without ABS) at 16 selected Intersport Rent outlets across Ski amadé. You will find all of the details on our website. www.skiamade.com/freeride

Cash4Tricks

The Cash4Tricks Tour has achieved cult status within the community, with hardcore fans attempting to participate at as many of the nine tour stops as possible. And this is what it's all about: From January, the Ski amadé - Cash4Tricks will be on tour again and its judges will be giving away cash for the best tricks presented to them. Everyone is welcome to join the outdoor events. Just try your best and you could be topping up your pocket money. Those who take part in at least four Cash4Tricks events can use their collector's pass to enter the prize draw for a Ski amadé season ticket for the season 2021/2022 and Blue Tomato voucher. In recent years the girls have been displaying particularly cool jumps, showing us who really rules the snow park.
